Desconocida Unknown Ukjent is a political art project related to women's fight against abuse, femicides and human trafficking. Through a traditional female activity: embroidery, people globally are invited to engage, protest and show solidarity with the fight against abuse.

So far, in this embroidery project, 700 people in 22 countries have participated. Each participant embroiders the name of one murdered woman from Juarez onto 2x8cm nametags. To remember women worldwide experiencing similar abuse, each participant also embroider unknown in his or her own language and alphabet.

26th August and 9th September embroidery workshops will be held at SOFT gallery. The workshop takes two hours. The prize winning Documentary film Missing young women by Lourdes Portillo will be shown, while the participants embroider the names of killed and missing women onto small nametags. These nametags will be a part of the continuing art project. There will be talk and dialogue between participants, artist and curator for the exhibition. No embroidery skills needed to participate.

Welcome!
